News and Announcements

WE MUST SHOW LOVE

Jesus reminds us in the Gospel message this weekend that to be in a relationship with Him and His father as a disciple, "WE MUST" show LOVE. Love of God and of neighbor is our biggest challenge, not only as a Christian but as a human as well. We can get lost in trying to explain or define what love is for each of us. Your relationship with your spouse, child, grandchild, relative, friend, neighbor, and even with God is unique and personal. It is easy to say that we love things. I love: baseball, flowers, vegetables, liver, ice cream, my career, etc., tells others how we approach life. The challenge is to put all relationships first and things second. We learn about others by finding out about the things they enjoy and love. Jesus turns our thinking around by having us LOVE OTHERS FIRST. To be His disciple is: to trust, to see Christ not only in ourselves but in others as well. Then we will learn about their personal likes and dislikes. If we all could lower the walls of fear that we build up because of past relationship mistakes with others and situations that have not been that pleasant, we truly could show how we are influenced by Christ and the Father by moving past the past with forgiveness in our own hearts. It is then that we love others first as does God.

SACRAMENT OF HEALING
