News and Announcements

Just a THOUGHT

Our Gospel reminds us this weekend that, "Jesus always waits." After the Resurrection the Disciples went back to fishing. Even though they were very involved with Jesus for three years, they had to be reminded by Jesus, who waited for them on the shore, that a change had taken place. They were a part of that change. We are a part of that change.

We are called as well to be "fishers of men." Let our Easter resolution this year be a change in our lives about what God wants us to do. How can we change our habits and routines to turn our lives to what God wants us to do and to be. Jesus will always "wait" for us. Let our Easter resolution this year be to open our hearts to see the Person of Jesus Christ not only in ourselves, but in others.
